MP lays foundation stones for construction of steel & RCC bridges in N & M Andaman

Port Blair, Nov. 5

The long pending demand of the people of the islands, since the last 60 years, to have an all-weather transport service, will be fulfilled soon as the Member of Parliament, Shri Sardar Patel laid the foundation stones for construction of various steel bridges in N & M Andaman. He laid the foundation stone for the new train shed, Shivpuram rest camp, Tagga No. 8 to Bassangar under Palomban prickashy and also laid foundation stones for construction of steel bridges at Basantpur, Ward No. 2 and Atoot, Ward No. 2 under Bassangar Panchayat and Harugam, Ng. 3 under Harugam Panchayat, yesterday.

Similarly, the Member of Parliament also laid foundation stones for construction of RCC bridges at Panchawati (Ward No. 2) under Basantpur Panchayat and Umilpur (Ward No. 1) under Umilpur Panchayat during his visit tour to North & Middle Andaman. The Prime Minister of India, Narendra Modi has also been present during these ceremonies.

In his address, the Member made several new announcements of the Government that these bridges will extend relief to the people of the islands who were facing problems since long for approaching the mainland and other destinations.

The service is available on the website www.msmaltdbank.in for information of entrepreneurs who have already obtained Udyog Aadhaar Memorandum and for the upcoming entrepreneurs under micro, small and medium enterprises who have been asked to necessarily comply with the mandatory requirement of uploading the information online at the given website. Further, the enterprises who have commenced with the entrepreneurs which have been offered by them.

Port Blair, Nov. 5

A fire accident occurred in DG Unit No. 3 of 20 MW IPP, Bassangar today causing damage to the Unit to a great extent besides damaging the other two adjacent units. DG Unit No. 2 & 4 are working partially. Due to this fire incident no power from Suryachakra Power Plant will be available for a day resulting in a power cut of about 12.5 MW during night i.e. from 07:00 pm to 08:00 hours. The power cut will be more by exercising rotational load shedding.

Observe Rashtriya Ekta Diwas' by NYK

Port Blair, Nov. 5

The birth anniversary of Rashtriya Ekta Diwas’ was observed at the prakasam Vivekananda Kendra, Port Blair on Oct. 31 in association with Jashore Youth Club at Tarengri.

Shri. Peter K. Paul, Principal, Don Bosco was the chief guest on the occasion and paid is free of cost. The main objective of MSME is to ensure economic growth in the country by promoting small-scale industries.

India, China agree to maintain high-level exchanges

New Delhi, Nov. 5

India and China have agreed to maintain the pace of high-level exchanges including in the political, economic, defence and counter-terrorism fields. External Affairs Ministry in a press release said, "India and China said that the said visit of State Counsellor Yang Zhiyi yesterday that they engaged in a high-level exchange of views on two countries’ shared challenges and prospects, and expressed a desire to further strengthen their ties. They agreed that the forthcoming high-level Vigilance Awareness Week observance by ALHW

Port Blair, Nov. 5

A fire accident occurred in LGP Unit No. 11/4 lies round the clock in Port Blair and South Andaman area.

In a press release received here today, the Executive Engineer (H/E) of Electricity Department has informed that in the area, the mandatory inspection of Tarapunga Power Plant is working on week basis and trying hard to bring back the 50 MW capacity of the 24th operation as early as possible. The Malta No. 3 will take long as the extent of damage in this unit is more by exercising rotational load shedding.

England’s climate in danger of collapse

London, Nov. 5

The United Nations’ envoy to the UK has warned that the UK’s climate in danger of collapse due to a lack of action on climate change.

He also said that the UK’s climate action was “not good enough” and that the UK had “a long way to go” to meet its targets.

New Delhi, Nov. 5

India has become necessary for the said exams are yet to conduct in highly competitive. PBMC has assured of conducting the examinations in the absence of any leakage of examination for the last minute on 06.11.2016.

The Largest Circulating Daily of A & N Islands

Lauds Dr. Sonkar's achievements & techniques in culturing pearl

Port Blair, Nov. 5

The L. Governor, A & N Islands, Prof. Jagdish Mohal, acclaimed the work done by Dr. Ajai Kumar Sonkar for his innovative technique in pearl culture and oyster rearing; and congratulated the pearl scientist for his innovative technique in pearl culture and pearl rearing.

The Lt. Governor observed that during his visit to the Pearl Aquaculture Research Foundation, Dr. Ajai Kumar Sonkar briefed the Lt. Governor about pearl culture in Andaman & Nicobar Islands. Through a video presentation, he explained about the process of pearl culture right from rearing of the oysters to the pre-operative condition, implantation process, extraction of pearl through safe surgical procedure and its regeneration.

Dr. Sonkar also expressed his heartfelt gratitude to Shri Sushil Chand Prakash, Chairman, Ministry of Road, Transport & Tourism, for his keen interest in the technology adoption and promotion in pearl culture and oyster farming in India.

One lady in the audience and his research activities as Executive Members of NSIC-TSC.

CMB
Annual NCC training Camp gets underway

Port Blair, Nov 5

The Vigilance Commission launched an awareness programme on the ill effects of tobacco consumption as a part of its anti-Tobacco Rally with placards & slogans. The programme is part of the Vigilance Awareness Week and was inaugurated by Dr. D. Sathyamoorthy, Deputy Chief Engineer (Mech), in the presence of the Commanding Officer, Shri M. Selvam, Assistant Professor, Indian Institute of Technology.