President addresses Nation on the eve of Independence Day

New Delhi, Aug 14
Prime Minister has addressed the Nation today.

Prime Minister said that the Independence Day celebrations this year will be marked by the continued fight against COVID-19. He said that the country has been successful in controlling the pandemic, but the battle is not yet over. The Prime Minister called on all Indians to continue to wear masks and maintain social distancing.

Prime Minister said that the grading of the A & N Islands in independence and development is under the leadership of the Lt Governor, Admiral DK Joshi. He said that the Islands have made significant progress in various sectors such as infrastructure, education, health, and tourism.

Prime Minister also praised the efforts of the A & N Police, Army, Navy, and Air Force for maintaining law and order on the Islands.

Prime Minister concluded by saying that the A & N Islands have a bright future, and the country is proud to have them as part of its territory.

railway and aviation personnel, providers of various services, Government employees, social service organisations and generous citizens who are much beyond their call of duty to save lives and ensure essential services.

The President highlighted some of the flagship schemes of the Government, which have emerged as shining examples of India's skill and scientific bent, such as the Ayushman Bharat Yojana, One Ration Card, Vande Bharat Mission and Shramik Special Trains among others, which he said, have eased people's lives amid these testing times.

Reaffirming, India's belief in the principle of Vasudhaiv Kutumbakam, World is One family, President said that the country, apart from taking care of its 1.3 billion citizens, has also been helping hands to many fellow countries. He said, the overwhelming support India got at the elections for the non-permanent seat of the United Nations Security Council bears testimony to the fact that India enjoys international goodwill.

Speaking about the importance of self-reliance, Shri Kovind said that India's push to Atmanirbhar Bhartiya comes without alienation or distancing from the global community, he will continue with the country's world economy while maintaining its own identity. Hitting at the recent border skirmishes, Shri Kovind said that Indian soldiers gallantly defended the country's airspace and borders.

He also mentioned that the country has taken the current crisis as an opportunity and numerous landmark reforms benefitting millions have been introduced by the Government.

President exhorted on the lessons which the pandemic has unveiled to the humanity. He also stressed on the importance and adoption of human-centred collaborations over economy-centric inclinations. He said, these testing times have brought all of us together apart from highlighting the need to develop a robust health infrastructure in the country.

Speaking about the New Education Policy, Shri Kovind said that its implementation will lead to a new education system which will help transform the nation. He said, the education system is the backbone of science and technology which he said helped meet the twin objectives of saving lives and resumption of activities in midst of a global pandemic.

President appealed to the families who have lost their loved ones due to Covid-19 to live life with a strong spirit and take care of their loved ones.
