Hon'ble Minister of FAH&D virtually lays foundation stone for construction of Wholesale-cum-Retail Fish Market at Bathubasti

Sri Vijaya Puram, Apr. 28

A live streaming programme was organized by the Department of Fisheries, A&N Administration of the Coastal States Meet, 2025 held at Mumbai today wherein the foundation stone plaque for the work of construction of Wholesale-cum-Retail Fish Market at Bathubasti, Sri Vijaya Puram was unveiled by Shri. Rajiv Ranjan Singh alias Lalan Singh, Hon'ble Minister of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry & Dairying (MoFAH&D) and Minister of Panchayati Raj, Govt. of India in the presence of Shri. SP Singh Baghel, Minister of State, MoFAH&D and Ministry of Panchayati Raj, Govt. of India and Shri George Kurian, Minister of State, MoFAH&D and Ministry of Minority Affairs, Govt. of India.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic and active participation from over 200 stakeholders, including fishers, fish vendors, fisherwomen, representatives from PRIs, and officials from the Department of Fisheries. This significant infrastructure project will be developed on a plot measuring approximately 750 square meters, with a built-up area of 300 square meters. Designed to enhance the marketing and distribution of fish and fishery products in the region, the proposed fish market will be equipped with modern amenities to ensure hygiene, efficiency, and sustainability.

Key features of the facility will include a raised platform for hygienic display and sale of fish, separate and spacious areas designated for fish cutting, a properly covered drainage system to maintain cleanliness, and an overhead water tank to ensure continuous water supply. Additionally, provisions have been made for a pre-fabricated Cold Storage Unit to preserve fish products, a small administrative office, and essential public utilities such as toilet blocks. To support environmental sustainability, the market will incorporate a rainwater harvesting system and a waste composting unit. A retaining wall will be constructed for structural support, and a motorable road will provide easy access to the fish market for both vendors and customers. Advanced chilling equipment will also be installed to maintain the freshness of fish products.

Upon completion, the fish market is expected to provide marketing space for more than 80 users, including individual vendors and cooperative groups. It is projected to serve the daily needs of approximately 40,000 to 45,000 residents in the surrounding area, significantly improving access to fresh fish and fishery products while also boosting local livelihoods and strengthening the fisheries sector, a press release from Fisheries Deptt. said.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor inaugurates two-day A&N Conference-SANGITI at DBRAIT

Hon'ble Lt. Governor outlines accomplishments of UT and stressed that focus should be on achieving Hon'ble PM's vision of Viksit Bharat@2047

Sri Vijaya Puram, Apr. 28

The two-day A&N Conference, SANGITI-2025 (Survey of Andaman & Nicobar Governance Initiatives for Transformative Islands) got underway at DBRAIT today. Organized by A&N Administration, the Conference was inaugurated by Admiral D K Joshi, PVSM, AVSM, YSM, NM, VSM (Retd.), Hon'ble Lt. Governor, A&N Islands & Vice Chairman, Islands Development Agency by lighting the traditional oil lamp in the presence of Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, Guest Speakers from NITI Aayog, Senior Officers of Defence & Civil Administration, Tourism Stakeholders and others. The session commenced by observing a two-minute silence to pay tributes to those who lost their lives in the recent terror attack in Pahalgam.

Addressing the gathering on the occasion, the Lt. Governor said that conceptualization of this forum- open ended discussions involving stakeholders from different fields is a path breaking initiative of A&N Administration and its desired objective is for the attainment of the 'Viksit Bharat Vision' of the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi by 2047 as also our march towards 5 trillion plus economy and what the UT's contribution can be in this direction.

The Lt. Governor remarked that the UT Administration is committed to implement various socio-economic schemes including the Flagship Schemes effectively to trigger the overall development of the Island economy. He said, the UT Administration envisages to have a good quality of life thereby ensuring 'Ease of Business', 'Ease of Living' initiatives, provision of Power, drinkable water, Health Care for individuals and the Administration has done reasonably well to enable a society which is vibrant, culturally rich and harmonious.

Unlike mainland India, the UT Administration has successfully implemented various schemes of Central Government and remained as Table Topper in many of the nationwide evaluation process done by various agencies from time to time and in most of the social indicators while out performing many States and UTs and also better ranked as compared to the National average. The UT of A&N Islands was felicitated as the "Top Achiever in Two Citizen Centric Reform Areas" in Business Reforms Action Plan (BRAP)". The Islands secured the top position in the 1st and 3rd Rozgar Melas by issuing the highest number of appointment letters. He said, 5000 unfilled vacancies were filled in a span of two years. Further, among all the UTs, and in the States of the Country, A&N Islands stood first as the first Swachh Sujal UT of the Country.

The Lt. Governor said that many transformational infrastructure projects have been taken up with the setting up of the 'Islands Development Agency' in the month of June, 2017. Many of the visionary & transformational projects have been completed viz. Optical Fiber Cable (OFC), Bridge on Humfrey Strait, New Airport Terminal Building etc. The Lt. Governor further mentioned that codal formalities have been completed or at various stages of completion in a vast number of infrastructure projects. The Lt. Governor said that with a vision to develop the Islands, the UT Administration has been pushing many major projects to have a total shift in the development trajectory of the Islands for the past few years.

The Lt. Governor pointed out the necessity for development of the A&N Islands as a premier scuba diving destination in the Indian Ocean Region, with the aim of attempting several underwater Guinness World Records.

The Lt. Governor also underscored the importance of ensuring a safe environment for tourists, particularly in light of the Pahalgam incident.

The Lt. Governor concluded his speech by mentioning that the outcome of the deliberations

Hon'ble MP urges issuance of Tenancy Rights to Tsunami shelter Allottees in A&N Islands

Sri Vijaya Puram, Apr. 28

Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, Hon'ble Member of Parliament, A&N Islands, has submitted written request letter to the Hon'ble Lt. Governor, A&N Islands, seeking intervention to issue tenancy rights to the allottees of permanent tsunami shelters. A copy of the request has also been endorsed to the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India and the Hon'ble Union Home Minister for their kind perusal and necessary support.

In his letter, Shri Ray has stated that the permanent tsunami shelters, constructed between 2006 and 2009 across various locations such as Campbell Bay, Little Andaman, Sippighat, Teylerabad, Burmanallah, Calicut, Chouldhari, Nayashahar, Bambooflat and others, were allotted to the affected families who had suffered immense loss of life and property during the 2004 Tsunami. These shelters were built through a collaborative effort involving NGOs and Government agencies.

While the families were allotted shelters through formal allotment orders and have independently managed utility services like water and electricity for the past 16 years, they have not received any financial assistance for repairs or maintenance. As a result, most of these shelters are now in a dilapidated state, with extensive damage to roofs, ceilings and structures.

Adding to their distress is the absence of any written legal title or tenancy rights over the land under their occupation (approximately 200 sq. meters per household). This lack of formal tenure has deprived them of the opportunity to access bank loans, avail benefits under various Government housing schemes, or undertake repairs and renovations independently.

In his communication, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray has requested that tenancy rights, by way of issuing licences over the occupied lands, be granted to these families under the relevant provisions of the A&N Islands Land Revenue and Land Reforms Regulation, 1966 and the associated rules. Granting such rights would empower the affected families to maintain and reconstruct their homes according to their requirements, access financial and Government support systems, and improve their quality of life, a press release from MP Office said.

Billiground, Apr. 28

On 28/04/2025, Ms. Shweta K. Sugathan, IPS, Superintendent of Police, North & Middle Andaman District conducted a "Jan Sunvai" (Public Hearing) at Panchayat Hall, Hari Nagar, Billiground to directly hear and address the grievances of the local residents.

The event witnessed an enthusiastic participation of approximately 120 residents from the Billiground area, representing various sections of the community, including local leaders, youth, women, and senior citizens. During the interaction, citizens raised a wide range of issues encompassing law enforcement challenges, public safety concerns, traffic management, women and child safety, and other civic grievances affecting their daily lives. Each concern was patiently and attentively heard by the Superintendent of Police, who provided immediate responses, offered clarifications, and assured necessary action on the spot wherever feasible. The interactive session fostered a sense of trust and transparency, strengthening the bond between the Police and the community. Following the grievance redressal session, the Superintendent of Police also conducted an awareness interaction on drug abuse, sensitizing the public about the devastating impact of narcotics on the youth and society at large. She explained how drug addiction not only ruins individual lives but also erodes the social fabric of communities, a press release from SP, N&MA said.

PUBLIC NOTICE

It is to inform general public that an agreement to Sale was executed on 28th June, 2023 between Smti. Parul Chakraborty, wife of Sri Hrishikesh Chakraborty, Resident of Madhyamgram, 24 Pgn's, State of West Bengal and Sri Nabo Roy, Son Sri Nagen Roy, Resident of Dollygunj, Sri Vijaya Puram, South Andaman in connection with land bearing Survey No. 252/2 area in Total 1.000 hectares, classified as P-I, situated and located at Subhasgram Diglipur, North Andaman.

That a public Notice is circulated on 14.04.2025 in connection with the above said land wherein it is mentioned that "purchaser Sri Nabo Roy is not coming forward to complete the sale by executing a proper deed of conveyance / sale deed of the said purchased land in respect of repeated request by my client / grandson of the said original vendor namely Shri Amit Chakraborty as such finding no other alternative my client has decided to cancel / rescind the said sale agreement with immediate effect.

Thus, the sale agreement executed on 28.06.2023 and Notarised on 29.06.2023 is hereby cancelled for all purposes.

Facts remains that as per the discussion earlier Smti. Parul Chakraborty will demarcate the said land first and handed over-actve physical possession along with relevant documents such as no dues & non encumbrances, Valuation Certificate etc. thereafter execution and Registration of formal sale deed but till date no action found for Registration of sale deed.

That Notice circulated on 14.04.2025, the same is void, illegal, in appropriate, unethical, irrelevant and against the law, further Smti. Parul Chakraborty has no authority to cancel sale agreement dated 29.06.2023.
