Expression of Interest for Yacht Marina Yacht Tourism to get a big boost in A&N Islands

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 6

The Andaman & Nicobar Islands with pristine clear waters, sandy beaches, abundant coral life and convenient geographical location makes an ideal destination for International Sailors. In recent years, International Yachts have shown keen interest in visiting Andaman and Nicobar Island Ports to enjoy the beauty of these emerald Islands. The numbers of foreign yachts have considerably increased manifolds touching up to a maximum of 64 numbers of Yachts per year. Considering this increasing demand of Yachts visiting these Islands, the need for an exclusive requirement of Yacht Marina was felt necessary and plans to build a Marina for International/Super Yachts sailing to the A & N Islands was envisaged.

To rapidly establish the Andaman and Nicobar Islands as a top end tourism destination, an EOI has been floated for development of Yacht Marina by private players in PPP Mode on No Cost No Commitment (NCNC) basis. National and International publicity has been done to solicit the interested players, a press release from Chief Port Administrator, PMB, ANI said.

District Administration in coordination with Civil Defence Forces and Emergency Support Functionaries to conduct Civil Defence Exercise today

Advisory issued for blowing of Sirens during the Exercise to be held in South Andaman District

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 6

The District Administration, in coordination with Civil Defence Forces and Emergency Support Functionaries of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands, will be conducting a Civil Defence Exercise on 7th May, 2025 at 4 pm in the South Andaman District to assess and enhance civil defence preparedness. All residents and business establishments have been urged to remain calm and continue with their routine activities, as this is a pre-planned exercise with no real threat to public safety. The sirens installed across the South Andaman District may be briefly sounded during the exercise as part of the standard procedure. This should not be a cause for concern. The public have been strongly advised not to be alarmed by any sights or sounds associated with the drill. All activities will be carried out in a controlled and supervised environment by trained professionals and coordinators. This exercise plays a crucial role in strengthening community's disaster preparedness. The support of general public are greatly valued as the Administration strive to make Andaman & Nicobar Islands safer and more resilient. For more information or media inquiries, contact: Helpline Nos. 112, 1070, 1077, a press release from DC (SA) said.

Awareness Campaign conducted under Sneh Sangam initiative by Elder Helpline 14567

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 6
The National Helpline for Senior Citizens - 14567 conducted a series of impactful door-to-door visits and awareness campaigns across various Wards and Panchayats of South Andaman during the month of April. The outreach covered areas were Fisherman Colony (Junglighat), Ferrargunj Panchayat, Sippighat Panchayat, Ward No-6, Collinpur Panchayat and Mithakhari Panchayat.

These campaigns were conducted at both individual and community levels, in collaboration with key stakeholders such as the State Bank of India, District Legal Services Authority, Pankh NGO, Chinmaya Vanaprastha Sansthan (CCVS), the senior citizens wing of Chinmaya Mission and the Atal Foundation. The initiative aimed to raise awareness among senior citizens regarding their rights, entitlements and available support systems. The initiative involved door-to-door outreach, field engagements and personal interactions to build emotional bonds with senior citizens, understand their concerns and make them aware of the Elder Helpline's services including information, guidance, emotional support and field intervention. The outreach was led by Smti Sushma Pandey, Project Manager, NHSC, who emphasized the importance of connecting with every elder directly and ensuring they feel heard, supported, and safe.

A major awareness event was conducted at Ward No.6 in collaboration with Atal Foundation, State Bank of India and the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA). Elders were sensitized on digital safety and cyber fraud prevention by SBI officials, empowering them to handle digital platforms securely. Advocate Smti Suparna Biswas provided valuable insights into the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, encouraging elders to assert their rights in cases of neglect or financial abuse. The event fostered open dialogue, legal awareness, and trust in institutional support. Shri Aziz-Ur-Rehman, Councillor Ward No.6 also addressed the gathering.

Shri A.K. Biswas, Nodal Officer (NHSC), highlighted various welfare schemes provided by the Department of Social Welfare and encouraged senior citizens to take full advantage of the available benefits, a press release from Department of Social Welfare said.
