efforts to draw synergies between NRLM, NULM and MUDRA interventions for supporting micro enterprises and creating sustainable livelihood opportunities for the poor. NSDC is already engaged in the process of skill development at a National scale. Synergizing with NSDC will help MUDRA in augmenting the skill sets of the sectoral players.

Access to finance is critical and equally critical is the cost of finance to the Non Corporate Small Business Sector/ultimate beneficiary. The funds mobilized by micro units from the informal sources are at a high cost. There is scope for cost rationalization. However, the rationalization is intricately linked with the cost of funds for the last mile MFIs.

Accordingly, RBI has provided the allocation which helps in bringing down the cost of lending at the ultimate borrower level as MUDRA refinance will reduce the average borrowing cost of the lending institutions.
